

- Watershed Boundary
- Floodplain
- Alluvial Urban Soil
- D.C. Parks
- Primary Roads
- Neighborhood Landmark
- N.P.S. Managed Lands

This map shows the familiar orienting landmarks of the stream valley, such as roads and schools. It also reveals the relationship between these familiar landmarks and the oldest centering feature and foundation of the area--the Watts Branch stream and its alluvial floodplain soils.

AT HOME IN THE STREAM VALLEY

GREEN NEIGHBORHOOD, GREEN WATERSHED:
 Greening the Watts Branch Stream Valley

15 August 2006

Scale: 1" = 500"

